

It Moss be love

Film director Mike Figgis is opening an exhibition this week in honour of Kate The Great. It's a total Moss-see (sorry). Here are some facts to drop about the Queen Of Croydon.

♥ Kate was scouted at the age of 14 at JFK airport in New York. She's since racked up over 300 magazine covers.

♥ She's the third-richest model in the world (behind Gisele and Heidi Klum) raking in £8.2million last year.

♥ Her bro, Nick, 31, modelled in cult mag

The Face in the '90s and on the catwalk. It Moss be in the genes.

♥ Kate's clearly a frustrated rock star. She's played tambourine on Oasis' Be Here Now album, sung live with Primal Scream and appeared in a video for the White Stripes.

♥ In 1998 artist Marc Quinn made a pure gold statue of her. Wonder what she'd fetch on Cash4gold.com?

♥ Kate's wedding may well out-do Glasto's line-up, with Shirley Bassey and Snoop Dogg set to perform. Bets are on as to whether Naomi Campbell will be a bridesmaid. Just imagine the fight for the bouquet...

Kate & Other Women is on at The Little Black Gallery, London, June 22-July 30 (Thelittleblackgallery.com).
