‘Another excuse to celebrate the fabulous form of La Moss’ Esquire

The Little Black Gallery is proud to announce MIKE FIGGIS: KATE & OTHER WOMEN, from 22 June – 30 July 2011.

Mike Figgis is the renowned director and writer, most famous for his 1996 film ‘Leaving Las Vegas’ which was nominated for four Academy Awards. He has since worked on the cutting edge of creative digital filmmaking and photography, where he pushes the boundaries by experimenting with different textures and formats.

The sensually charged images of Kate Moss, Eva Green and ‘other women’ have been enchanted by Mike using techniques which he has developed himself, making them ‘unique’ in the true sense of the word.

The photographs of Kate Moss were shot as part of a campaign for Agent Provocateur in 2007, which included a series of films and a book ‘The 4 Dreams of Miss X’.*

For further information please contact Ghislain Pascal on 020-7349 9332.

 Mike will be signing copies of ‘The 4 Dreams of Miss X’ on Saturday 25 June from 12-1pm.*
