

DUAL BRYNNER

Oscar-winning actor Yul Brynner found fame in such films as The King and I, but he was equally talented behind the lens. His photographs are on display in London for the next month and include captivating images from on and off set of Hollywood's most glamorous stars, as seen through the eyes of one of their own. The exhibition opens this coming Wednesday and runs until 11 February at The Little Black Gallery, London SW10; thelittleblackgallery.com.

Some of Brynner's candid shots include, clockwise from above, Elizabeth Taylor and daughter Liza Todd Burton, 1959; Audrey Hepburn with Charles Vallotton in 1968 and in Venice, 1965

A LITTLE EXTRA SOLE

When French Sole decided to launch Pirouette, a new range of pumps for those long tall Sallys with larger than average feet, they could have just rushed out a couple of token styles. Instead they've created a collection of 60 designs in sizes 9-12. A step in the right direction for a nation no longer all perfect size 5s. From £94, frenchsole.com.
